

PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT GRANT CYCLE 41 (2018/2019)

North Coast Regional Office- Get Safe provided training on their Safety Training And Risk Reduction (STARR) curriculum to law enforcement, community agencies, and persons with I/DD.

North State Regional Office- Get Safe provided training on their Safety Training And Risk Reduction (STARR) curriculum to law enforcement, community agencies, and persons with I/DD.

Sacramento Regional Office- Get Safe provided training on their Safety Training And Risk Reduction (STARR) curriculum to law enforcement, community agencies, and persons with I/DD.

North Bay Regional Office- Get Safe provided training on their Safety Training And Risk Reduction (STARR) curriculum to law enforcement, community agencies, and persons with I/DD.

Bay Area Regional Office- Get Safe provided training on their Safety Training And Risk Reduction (STARR) curriculum to law enforcement, community agencies, and persons with I/DD.

North Valley Hill Regional Office- Get Safe provided training on their Safety Training And Risk Reduction (STARR) curriculum to law enforcement, community agencies, and persons with I/DD.

Central Coast Regional Office- Parents Helping Parents produced and marketed 12 videos (6 in English and 6 in Spanish) on the early intervention resources in California.

Sequoia Regional Office- Get Safe provided training on their Safety Training And Risk Reduction (STARR) curriculum to law enforcement, community agencies, and persons with I/DD.

Los Angeles Regional Office- Learning Rights Law Center expanded their online self-advocacy training by creating 4 videos in English, Spanish, and Mandarin that teaches parents how to be more effective in obtaining supports and services for their children.

Orange County Regional Office- Integrated Resources Institute provided workshops to empower parents with the education, support, and resource coordination necessary for them to be effective and equal partners on their child's IEP team.

San Bernardino Regional Office- Peppermint Ridge provided training to individuals with I/DD and their families on the process of procuring affordable housing.

San Diego Regional Office- Get Safe provided training on their Safety Training And Risk Reduction (STARR) curriculum to law enforcement, community agencies, and persons with I/DD.

Get Safe's Safety Training and Risk Reduction (STARR) trainings consisted of:

- One (1) session of the POST Certified training for trainers 16-hour "STARR for Law Enforcement" training course for law enforcement trainers;
- Three (3) sessions of the 2-hour "STARR for Persons with I/DD" direct training course for persons with I/DD; and
- Two (2) sessions of the 2-hour "STARR for Family/Community Supports" direct training course for family members, caregivers, and support personnel.

PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT GRANT CYCLE 39

(2016/2017)

Sacramento Regional Office- Peer Advocacy Connection-Supported Life Institute produced a video of current college student interviews to help create a visual experience for college students with I/DD so they can be more successful in college and employment.

Bay Area Regional Office- Helping Hands East Bay organized three free educational conferences with accompanying resource fair to provide information to monolingual Asian families living with developmental disabilities.

Silicon Valley/Monterey Regional Office- Hope Services conducted the Project SEARCH program for individuals with I/DD and secure competitive employment.

Sequoia Regional Office- Exceptional Family Center provided education-related service advocacy training to parents and guardians who have children served under an Individualized Education Program (IEP) and who are interested in becoming Parent Advocates.

Central Coast Regional Office- UCP Work developed a curriculum entitled "Individual Self-Determination and Family Supports for Employment (ISFSE)" that incorporated the recommendations of individuals with I/DD and family members whom the organization serves and addressed self-determination, goal development strategies, and diverse levels of cultural capital.

Los Angeles Regional Office- Project Get Safe conducted First Responder Training sessions address disability-related awareness, outreach, health and safety issues for people with I/DD and their families.

Orange County Regional Office- Project Independence educated and promoted competitive employment by providing training to people with I/DD and their families the ABLE Act.

San Diego Regional Office- Project Get Safe conducted a series of Self-Advocacy & Leadership trainings to provide continued learning, leadership skills, and networking opportunities to persons with I/DD.

PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT GRANT CYCLE 37 (2014/2015)

North Coast Regional Office- Project Get Safe conducted First Responder Training sessions to address disability-related awareness, outreach, health and safety issues for people with I/DD and their families.

North State Regional Office- AMJaMB, Beyond Inclusion expanded the work of The Call connection to increase the number of individuals with I/DD to secure competitive employment and developed a mentorship program.

North Bay Regional Office- TransCen, Inc. provided training and support on system integration and building the capacity of providers in the North Bay to use day services to support job placement.

Bay Area Regional Office- Community Gatepath created an employment toolkit with resources for educating employers about the benefits of hiring people with disabilities.

North Valley Hills Regional Office- Vocational Coaching and Development Institute, Inc. provided workshops to transitional aged individuals with I/DD pertinent and necessary information for basic community resources, day program services, vocational training programs, independent living, and advocacy groups.

Silicon Valley/Monterey Bay Regional Office- Project Get Safe conducted First Responder Training sessions to address disability-related awareness, outreach, health and safety issues for people with I/DD and their families.

Central Coast Regional Office- Alpha Resource Center of Santa Barbara provided education and support opportunities to parents of children graduating from California's Early Start Program into special education services.

Los Angeles Regional Office- Project Get Safe conducted First Responder Training sessions address disability-related awareness, outreach, health and safety issues for people with I/DD and their families.

Orange County Regional Office- Project Get Safe conducted First Responder Training sessions to address disability-related awareness, outreach, health and safety issues for people with I/DD and their families.

San Diego Regional Office- Project Get Safe conducted First Responder Training sessions to address disability-related awareness, outreach, health and safety issues for people with I/DD and their families.